Semester	Course	Random ID	Question: Additional comments
Winter 2024	UNIV 101	170070988781	Professor Croxall is great!
Winter 2024	UNIV 101	149014641171	Professor Croxall did an amazing job with the small amount he was given for teaching this course! As he said on our last day, we really did run out of things to talk about weeks ago, but him and our peer mentor Abbey still found new, fun ways, to approach the class and make it so we were excited to come to class each day. The UNIV 101 curriculum could improve a lot, if this class is to be required. Every week seemed to be some different way of saying either "how can you be a disciple scholar" or "how can you live the BYU Aims"? It was almost like a university level primary class, where we learned basically the same things every week, just with a different talk or story. Professor Croxall did an amazing job at keeping it interesting and engaging, and though his comments can sometimes come off more sarcastic than he may have meant, it was clear that he genuinely cared about us and our success. He was always down to talk about whatever with us and talk outside of class about our personal lives and offer guidance in whatever field of study we were going into in whatever way he could. (Also, the student rating was bugging out as I did this, so I'm combining all my comments into this field)

Winter 2024	UNIV 101	223389065757	Prof Croxall is a great man. He makes learning fun and made this course as fun and interactive for us as he could have. I really liked the class.
Winter 2024	UNIV 101	707961307083	The professor was very good at assigning content that was helpful but also useful for a first year student.
Winter 2024	UNIV 101	281975930075	Great Instructor!
Winter 2024	UNIV 101	604228040181	He was a great professor he made the class a lot of fun considering we don't have a whole lot to go off of for this class.
Winter 2024	UNIV 101	264209762080	Professor Croxall was great. Super friendly and smart. He encouraged us as a class to make friends with one another through interactive class time. This made class fun to attend. The course itself felt redundant at times, but this could be due to the fact that i have been ay BYU for three semesters.
Winter 2024	UNIV 101	1044004795895	The course started out pretty interesting and about halfway through the material started getting fairly repetitive, so it wasn't as interesting or helpful. I love that the professor used more interesting and interactive activities to help teach the material at the end. We had a building scavenger hunt to help discover what campus has to offer, did student-made kahoots on campus services and resources, and had engaging activities to help get the point of the readings across.
Winter 2024	UNIV 101	620215840373	He is a stud, great professor, I won't take any of his other classes because they have nothing to do with my field of study but I would love to if I was even kind of going in that direction.
Winter 2024	UNIV 101	650630519987	None
Winter 2024	UNIV 101	457178428680	I like this class. Very chill and relaxed.
Winter 2024	UNIV 101	320860963387	I really like Professor Croxall. It seems like the course could be more intentional in the type of material that it requires students to learn. We had a couple opportunities to visit different parts of campus and that was always extremely more helpful than sitting in class.
Winter 2024	UNIV 101	961203583033	Mr. Croxall was a great teacher course was a pilot course but beneficial.
Winter 2024	UNIV 101	718463722630	The course was one of my favorites, but only when Professor Croxall changed some of the material and assignments. The constant focus on BYU aims is quite repetitive. I completely understand the initial focus on them, but there comes a point where I want to learn about the actual resources at BYU, not just the principles of education. Professor Croxall seemed to understand this and felt the same, as we began to focus much more on helpful resources that can be found around campus. We learned about the advisement center, intermural sports, handshake, the Ballard Center, and many other groups found on campus. I found those discussions to be far more beneficial than learning about how great BYU is for the hundredth time.
