

UNIV 101, Winter 2024

Write a short letter to future students in this class (or other classes I teach). Please tell them what you think is most important for being successful with the assignments, the reading, the class, or (let's be honest) dealing with me.

Professor Croxall was a great teacher and really cared about the students. A word of advice is to be assertive if you need something in school.